ANYTHING GOES

As this goes out to you all, we have now completed blocking the show!!! Amazing how much work gets done in a short amount of time! Cast is working particularly hard and having fun while doing it. Show is getting some form about it, with plenty of work still to do. With now around 2 months till opening night, we're getting to the business end of rehearsals with us starting to run the acts separately and then the show all together. Below are quite a selection of photos from across Act 1 and Act 2 and also of the cast and our set builders. The set is already looking very impressive and I thank those who are building it for us – its sure to be quite a talking piece!

Have you bought your tickets yet????? Now is the time to contact BPACC and book your seats so that you don't miss out on seeing this great show.

The rehearsal photos posted on Facebook and Instagram are going great guns. It's always a good thing to like and share the photos, because that means all your friends and family get to see them too! Posts can reach thousands of people that way and it's just the kind of advertising that we want!

Below is the Production Team list. We thank those generous people who have put their hands up to help. We still have a final few spots to fill – in particular Stage Manager, Backstage (working backstage during the performances to help move sets etc) and Follow Spot Operators (1 still needed). If you want some more information about what these jobs entail or if you can assist us please contact Emily 0400639536.

We are also looking for people to help usher during shows. This would entail selling programmes and raffle tickets, serving tea and coffee at interval.
